

Member Benefits 2010

For more information about membership opportunities in SKAL Bangkok please contact Komson Sevasai at 081-616-3737 or Tim Waterhouse at 081-987-6916. There is also complete information on the SKAL Bangkok website at www.skalbangkok.com including a downloadable membership application form in PDF format.

- Access to approximately 21,000 global members in 500 clubs and 90 countries for doing business amongst friends or if you need research or market intelligence on a company or a destination.
- Networking opportunities with 420 members from the six Thailand Clubs.
- The SKAL International Membership Card entitles members to discounts at some participating outlets, provided by Skal Members.
- Opportunities to sell and promote your business internationally at the B2B (business to business) desks at the Asian and World Congresses and enjoy air fare savings with the participating airlines.
- The network of SKAL Members worldwide is now accessible via the SKAL website at www.skal.org. Information on members around the world is at your fingertips.
- SKAL Members are welcome at all meetings around the world. Wherever you travel, you can access a network of Skal friends and colleagues.
- SKAL News, a quarterly magazine, is a medium for information about the organization and an avenue for advertising exposure to 20,000 industry professionals.
- Free lunches when a new member is recommended and confirmed.
- Door prizes at meetings.
- Through contributions from Clubs around the world, the Florimond Volckaert Fund assists any SKAL member in times of financial need or crisis.
- Regular Cocktail/Networking events that include joint events with industry associations such as PATA.
- Attendance at the Asian Area Congress and the SKAL World Congress with red carpet treatment and special industry rates. Most airlines are also offering AD industry discounts for many of the congresses around the world. For instance, in May the North American NAASC conference is in Canada. Attend that and also pre-post tours to explore the whole of North American with great value thrown in.
- Make global friendships. Considered by some member as one of the most important benefits of membership. Make and maintain the most amazing friends in every corner of the globe.
- Members who may have a project which is of genuine interest to the membership worldwide are able to forward details to the General Secretariat who will collate this information and distribute it to the membership on a monthly basis. This is another free service to the membership. We regret that we are unable to forward messages of this nature to the membership on a daily basis. Please consult the SKAL International website www.skal.travel "Clubs Corner" for regular updates.
